

PREMIUMEVENT

TICKETINFO

Dear Sir or Madam,

Thank you for your message and your interest in our Premieument.

Regrettably, it is not possible to foresee when we will again be able to stage matches in the usual form and with full stadium capacity. Whether and in what form the necessary conditions will change soon and we will be able to welcome you again as a guest at the Premieument in the Allianz Arena cannot be reliably estimated, much to our regret. This process is extremely dynamic and depends crucially on the course of the pandemic.

As we are unable to provide reliable information for the reasons mentioned above and cannot give you the planning certainty that is essential, we unfortunately do not have the necessary scope to be able to offer you tickets in the premium event in the 2021/22 season.

We are extremely sorry about this and hope to be able to welcome you back to the Allianz Arena in the new 2022/23 season as part of the Premieument.

Should you have any further questions, please feel free to contact us at any time.

With best regards,
Your Premieument Team
